Based on who you are, what you do, and what you own, there are risk exposures we need to talk about. Having the personal insurance protection that is right for you is important to us. As your insurance advocates, we value your security and loved ones and will not rest until you can sleep soundly at night knowing you are protected.

Our risk advisors are experienced in delivering personal insurance solutions and guidance to individuals and families. We partner with a variety of clients, from those who have straightforward cases to those who require a more comprehensive approach for a complex portfolio. Our services go beyond coverage – it is planning for the unknown.

We cover most everything from basic home and auto to personal liability and luxury items. Consider the situations you could encounter, whether your home is damaged, a guest is injured on your property, or you want to pay out-of-pocket for a fender bender - talk with an IBTX representative about your coverage solutions.
